COMMENCEMENT OF CASES. Each of the Debtors listed on Schedule A have filed a petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code in this Court, and orders for relief have been entered in each case. You will not receive notice of all documents filed in this case. All documents filed with the Court, including lists of the Debtors' property and debts, are available for inspection at the Office of the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court. In addition, such documents may be available at www.usdeb.courts.gov.

PURPOSE OF CHAPTER 11 FILING. Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code enables a debtor to reorganize pursuant to a plan. A plan is not effective unless approved by the court at a confirmation hearing. Creditors will be given notice concerning any plan, or, in the event the cases are dismissed or converted to another chapter of the Bankruptcy Code, notice of such conversion or dismissal. The Debtors will remain in possession of their property and will continue to operate their businesses in the ordinary course unless a trustee is appointed at a later date by the Court.

CREDITORS MAY NOT TAKE CERTAIN ACTIONS. A creditor is anyone to whom a debtor owes money or property. Under the Bankruptcy Code, a debtor is granted certain protection against creditors. Common examples of prohibited actions by creditors are contacting a debtor to demand repayment, taking action against a debtor to collect money owed to creditors or to take property of a debtor, and starting a collection lawsuit against a debtor. If unauthorized actions are taken by a creditor against a debtor or the using foreclosure actions or repossessions, if unauthorized actions are taken by a creditor against a debtor or the Court may penalize that creditor. A creditor who is considering taking action against a debtor or the Court should review § 542 of the Bankruptcy Code and may wish to seek legal advice. The property of a debtor should review § 542 of the Bankruptcy Code and may wish to seek legal advice. The staff of the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court are not permitted to give legal advice.

MEETING OF CREDITORS. The Debtors' representative, as specified in Rule 9001(b) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), is required to appear at the meeting of creditors on the date and at the place set forth above for the purpose of being examined under oath. Attendance by creditors at the meeting is welcomed, but not required. At the meeting, the creditors may examine the Debtors' representative and transact such other business as may properly come before the meeting. The meeting may be continued or adjourned from time to time by notice at the meeting without further written notice to the creditors.

CLAIMS. Schedules of creditors will be filed pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1007, Del. Bankr. L.R. 1007-1(c), or orders of this Court. Any creditor holding a scheduled claim which is not listed as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated as to the amount of the claim may, but is not required to, file a proof of claim in these cases. Creditors whose claims are not scheduled or whose claims are listed as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated as to the amount of the claim and who desire to participate in the cases or share in any distribution from the Debtors' estates must file their proofs of claim. A creditor who desires to rely on the scheduled list of creditors has the responsibility for determining that the claim is listed accurately. Bankruptcy Rule 1007-1(c) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that the claim is listed accurately. Bankruptcy Rule 1007-1(c) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that the claim is listed accurately. Bankruptcy Rule 1007-1(c) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that the claim is listed accurately.

COMMENCEMENT OF CASES. Each of the Debtors listed on Schedule A have filed a petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code in this Court, and orders for relief have been entered in each case. You will not receive notice of all documents filed in this case. All documents filed with the Court, including lists of the Debtors' property and debts, are available for inspection at the Office of the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court. In addition, such documents may be available at www.deb.uscourts.gov.

PURPOSE OF CHAPTER 11 FILING. Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code enables a debtor to reorganize pursuant to a plan. A plan is not effective unless approved by the court at a confirmation hearing. Creditors will be given notice concerning any plan, or, in the event the cases are dismissed or converted to another chapter of the Bankruptcy Code, notice of such conversion or dismissal. The Debtors will remain in possession of their property and will continue to operate their businesses in the ordinary course unless a trustee is appointed at a later date by the Court.

CREDITORS MAY NOT TAKE CERTAIN ACTIONS. A creditor is anyone to whom a debtor owes money or property. Under the Bankruptcy Code, a debtor is granted certain protection against creditors. Common examples of prohibited actions by creditors are contacting a debtor to demand repayment, taking action against a debtor to collect money owed to creditors or to take property of a debtor, and starting or continuing foreclosure actions or repossessions. If unauthorized actions are taken by a creditor against a debtor, the Court may penalize that creditor. A creditor who is considering taking action against a debtor or the property of a debtor should review §362 of the Bankruptcy Code and may wish to seek legal advice. The staff of the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court are not permitted to give legal advice.

MEETING OF CREDITORS. The Debtors' representative, as specified in Rule 9001(5) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), is required to appear at the meeting of creditors on the date and at the place set forth above for the purpose of being examined under oath. Attendance by creditors at the meeting is welcomed, but not required. At the meeting, the creditors may examine the Debtors' representative and transact such other business as may properly come before the meeting. The meeting may be continued or adjourned from time to time by notice at the meeting, without further written notice to the creditors.

CLAIMS. Schedules of creditors will be filed pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1007, Del. Bankr. LR 1007-1(c), or order of this Court. Any creditor holding a scheduled claim which is not listed as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated as to the amount of the claim may, but is not required to, file a proof of claim in these cases. Creditors whose claims are not scheduled or whose claims are listed as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated as to the amount of the claim and who desire to participate in the cases or share in any distribution from the Debtors' estates must file their proofs of claim. A creditor who desires to rely on the schedule of creditors has the responsibility for determining that the claim is listed accurately. Separate notices of the deadlines to file proofs of claim and proof of claim forms will be provided to the Debtors' known creditors. Proof of claim forms also are available in the clerk's office of any bankruptcy court. Proof of Claim forms are also available from the Court's web site at www.deb.uscourts.gov. Additionally, when the Debtors send notice of deadlines to file proofs of claim, the Debtors will indicate the claim agent in these cases and such agent can provide a proof of claim form if you cannot obtain one from your local bankruptcy court.

DISCHARGE OF DEBTS. Confirmation of a chapter 11 plan may result in a discharge of the Debtors' debts, which may include all or part of your debt. See Bankruptcy Code §541(d). A discharge means that you may never try to collect the debt from the debtor, except as provided in the plan.
